Anyone interested in yearbook is welcome to come to Mrs. Bastoni's room after school on Tuesday and/or Thursday. We are always looking for help with layout, writing, interviewing, etc.

Greenfield Public Library is looking for high school students interested in participating in their Teen Book Bytes program. Interested students will create "book trailers" of their favorite books that will be included in a viewing party in November. Please see Mrs. Bowman or Ms. Jones in the Library if you have any questions or would like more information.

The ConVal High School Counseling Department is hosting two student and parent information nights for the Class of 2016. A presenter from the New Hampshire Higher Education Assistance Foundation (NHHEAF) will be at ConVal to present on both the college application process and the financial aid process. October 21, 2015 at 6:30 pm will be the College Overview for Seniors. This presentation educates high school seniors and their families about the college admission process. Topics to be discussed include: the qualifications of college are looking for, application components, college essay pointers, the application timeline and basic financial aid overview. December 2, 2016 at 6:30 will be the Fi-ancial Aid Night for Seniors. This presentation helps families navigate through the federal financial aid process (FAFSA), explores what type of additional aid is available, reviews scholarship searches and highlights the importance of meeting deadlines. All are welcome to attend.

American Legion High School Oratorical Contest - open to all students in grades 9-12 who are US Citizens. State awards up to $1000, National awards up to $18,000.
