The ConVal Social Studies Department invites all members of the ConVal community to vote in our mock election on election day, Tuesday February 9. Everyone in ConVal is eligible to vote. The election will be run by government classes, who will check you in and help you vote. Voting will take place in room 310 during the whole day. Teachers: please accompany your classes to the polls--do not send them on their own. You do not need to make an appointment or tell us when you're coming; we will be able to accommodate you.

We will release the results, including some interesting statistical breakdowns. We look forward to your attendance. Let's aim for 100% voter turnout!
