

ConVal High School | Informed Civic Contributor

Revision of Civic Engagement

This rubric can be used in any class providing civic discussion or action. Students will also reflect on these skills each semester for an overall civic checkpoint. This rubric should be used to help students build necessary skills. This rubric should not be factored into the academic grade.

		1	2	3	4
	Not Observed	Attempted	Partially Proficient	Proficient	Mastered
Informed		Is aware of issues impacting others.	Sometimes discusses issues impacting others.	Can articulate understanding of the issues impacting others.	Shares concern for issues impacting others to engage and inform others.
Civic Responsibility		Recognizes rules and guidelines established in the school handbook.	Sometimes follows rules and guidelines established in the school handbook.	Frequently follows rules and guidelines established in the school handbook.	Demonstrates and helps others to follow rules and practice established in the school handbook.
School Community Involvement		Identifies activities that would benefit the school community.	Sometimes participates in activities for the benefit of the school community.	Frequently participates in activities for the benefit of the school community.	Organizes and leads activities for the benefit of the school community.
Personal Community Involvement		Identifies activities that would benefit their personal community.	Sometimes participates in activities for the benefit of their personal community.	Frequently participates in activities for the benefit of their personal community.	Organizes and leads activities for the benefit of their personal community.

v. 2.0 (5/2021)

Student Name:	Date:
Activity:	Overall Score:	1	2	3	4